

Yvon BRIND'AMOUR

Yvon Brind'Amour is Senior Vice –President Investor Relations for Lafarge. Born in Canada in 1958, he is a graduate of Sherbrooke University (Human Resources management, 1980) and of Montreal (Accounting, 1989). He earned his Accounting certification (CMA) in 1990.

After a 15 year career at Northern Telecom (Nortel Network, 1980-1995), where he filled positions of increasing responsibilities in Human Resources and Finance, he became Vice President Finance, Europe at Moore Corp., a printing company (1995-1999). He joined Lafarge in July 1999 as Controller for Cement Operations in Canada. In 2001, he was appointed Senior Vice President Controller for Lafarge North America, a position he held until his move to his current role in Lafarge Group in September 2005.

Lafarge, the world leader in Business Materials employs 70 000 people in 70 countries and posted sales of €17 billion in 2006.