

Alexandre Markarov is Managing Director Global Equities. Prior to joining Millennium Finance Corporation Ltd., Alexandre was Vice-President at BNP Paribas, where he was responsible for origination and execution in the Media & Telecom sector in Southern Europe. Before shifting to the Media & Telecom Corporate Finance team, he was in the Equity Capital Markets department covering Central and Eastern Europe. Alexandre has approximately 10 years of investment banking experience. During his career, Alexandre has advised both Governments (Algeria, Iran, Bahrain, Russia, etc.) and private companies (Orascom Telecom, Etisalat, Mobily, Telefonica, Belgacom, Wanadoo, France Telecom, Outremer Telecom, KAST Telecom, LUKoil, GL Trade, etc.) on Media & Telecom and Equity Capital Markets transactions. More recently, Alexandre advised among others Belgacom on attempted acquisition of Ceske Telecom; Etisalat on the acquisition of the 2nd GSM license in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (Mobily) and subsequent listing of Mobily on Saudi Stock Exchange; Orascom on the sale of 50% of Orascom Telecom Tunisia to Wataniya; Etisalat on the acquisition of Pakistan Telecom; the Government of Algeria and Iran on the sale of 2nd GSM licences to Orascom and MTN, respectively; and APAX Partners on the acquisition of Outremer Telecom. Alexandre holds a Postgraduate degree in Mathematical Finance (1997) and a Masters in Management (1996) from University of Paris IX - Dauphine (France).